

Leadership Panel

J. Brantley Thrasher, MD, FACS
Department of Urology
Kansas City, Kansas

Panelists

- Steve Nakada
- Mike Koch
- Martha Terris
- Chris Amling
- Joel Nelson

Question #1

In the era of integrated health systems, what do you consider the greatest challenge for department chairs of the future?

Dr Terris

Question #2

What do you consider your greatest asset leading to your success as a leader?

Dr Nelson

Question #3

What “fatal flaw” would you recommend any leader avoid at all costs?

Dr Amling

Question #4

What single word describes the characteristic you most admired in a close mentor?

Dr Koch

Question #5

What “piece of advise” would you impart on a urologist aspiring to be a future leader in urology?

Dr Nakada

Question #6

If there was one thing that you could do differently in your own path to leadership, what might that be?

During my prostate exam,
I asked my doctor where I should put my pants. "Over there by mine" was not the answer I expected.